Lighting of the Christ Candle

During Advent, we have journeyed in faith toward God's wondrous gift.

O come, let us adore Him.

During Advent, we stood in awe of God's saving grace.

O come, let us adore Him.

During Advent, we recalled the promise of God's spoken word.

O come, let us adore Him.

During Advent, we waited for the time of God's glorious arrival.

O come, let us adore Him

Tonight our waiting is over, our eyes are open, and the gift is given.

O come, let us adore Him

Candle Lighting

Tonight we light all the candles. The first blue candle calls us to behold the glory of the season with renewed wonder. Advent is a time to be awed by God's redeeming love for the lost and broken. The second blue candle calls us to reclaim the promises of God spoken in ages past. As the light fills this room, so the Word of God fills our world with hope for the hurting, peace for the restless, and joy for the heavy-hearted. The third candle is pink, an invitation to wait patiently upon the Lord. In a world where we often lack for patience, Advent reminds us to rest in God's timing and trust God's plan. The fourth blue candle challenges us to grow in faithful expectation. As people whose faith often becomes tamed to the miraculous, Advent is a time to remember afresh a God in whom all things are possible. Tonight we light the Christ Candle, rejoicing in the Good News of the holy birth, the hope of humanity and the light of the world.

Congregation Sings: One Candle is Lit (v. 5) #128

*Come, listen, the sounds of God within us ring clear
And signs of a cross in the distance appear.
The Word once made flesh, yet the Word ever near.
One candle is lit for the Christ birth day here.*

Let Us Pray: Gracious God, thank you for guiding us throughout this season of wonder. We stand amazed at the promise now fulfilled and awed by your humble birth. Help us receive, again, the joy and wonder of the greatest gift offered to the world. We pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, our newborn King. Amen.
